The exposure visit was headed by Mr.Binoy Krisna Mallick Executive Director of RJ , Mr. Azharul Islam , Program Manager RJ,

Selection criteria: They all are good in conduction of the meeting of international level. They are habituated of conducting a participatory meeting also.

Mr. Binoy Krishna Mallick : He is well known In India as well as with networking NGO in India. Usually he participated in nationally and internationally forum on the issue of prevention human trafficking and promotion of safe migration. He is very much experience on rescue of human trafficked survivors and repatriation of survivors.

Mr. SM Azharul Islam: He is too much habituated of the conduction any sorts of meeting of national level or International level. He is also very much experienced on the issue of prevention human trafficking and promotion of safe migration. He is also well known to high Government level officials both in India and Bangladesh. He is experienced in networking with networking NGO's and experienced in rescuing trafficked survivors as well as repatriation. He has a good understanding of SOP.

During the exposure visit in India under mentioned subject was discussed with Net working NGO.

- Strong networking establishment
- SOP monitoring.
- Multi agency coordination
- Jail case.

Strong networking establishment:

All visited networking NGO's authority emphasised on strong net working. Without establishing strong network the expected achievement cannot be achieved they realised. Regular Cross border networking meeting should be arranged in this purpose. Experience sharing on rescue, repatriation and integration of human trafficked survivors must need. Regular Exposure visit of two country's networking NGO's is very much needed.

SOP Monitoring :

Visited all networking NGO are agreed with this point for monitoring of SOP. In the previous cross border networking meeting some decision was taken it was as follows

Review and Reform of SOP:

1. There is a need of putting greater emphasis on preventive measures by addressing the structural and root causes of trafficking. This would also contribute in sustainable social integration of the survivors (which would also contribute in preventing re-trafficking).
2. There still exists push-back and other informal return/repatriation of the victims organized by the formal institutions even though the SOP has clear directives on human rights-based process ensuring dignity and respect of the survivors.
3. The SOP and MoU have not given due emphasis on Bangladesh being a trafficking destination of Indian citizens. There is a need of addressing this concern as a priority.
4. In the SOP and MoU, there are no clear directives on what would be the status of the children in case of the children who are born at destination while the mother is being trafficked.
5. There are some norms that have evolved over the period (such as the children below the age of five are repatriated with the mother without any further due). However, these are not taken into account by the SOP which has further complicated the repatriation process. The experience of the actors with practical experience of repatriation is now needed to be heard in reviewing the SOP.
6. The MoU identifies the commitments of the state parties to address all forms of human trafficking- this needs to be incorporated in the SOP so that the coverage is expanded to cover men along with women and children in relation to trafficking.

Implementation of SOP and Monitoring:

1. There is a need of strengthening the monitoring of SOP implementation process for which the RRRI Taskforce needs to be strengthened. At the same time, there is a need of organizing civil society monitoring. The NGOs across the borders need to strengthen networking and carry out a shadow monitoring of the SOP which the SOP has already assigned to the NGOs. The shadow monitoring can also be published as annual reports.
